Reflections for Corpus Christi Sunday

Do we see God everywhere and within every person? We know that Jesus loves us and gave His life so that each of us will be greatly blessed including eternal life. Can we live the life that Jesus longs to give us? Today's feast clearly shows that Jesus wishes to give each person every type of needed food for the journey to eternal life. By sharing in the Eucharist, the Real Presence of Jesus, Christians though many in number are one body in Christ. When we receive the Eucharist do we see and experience ourselves being nourished and enriched? Our spiritual hungers are the greatest hungers of all. We need food for our journey. The Eucharist transforms us and heals all of our brokenness. One of the greatest blessings of being a people of the Eucharistic community in addition to receiving our Lord is the joy of being able to sustain and nurture this experience through daily prayer and the lived faith experience. Prayer helps to lead the way into a deeper realization of God acting in our lives and the healing and loving moments of the Eucharist.

When we have the good fortune to travel to places such as Lourdes or the Holy Land we cannot help but be struck by the power of the reality of God's love? Do we welcome into our lives others who may come from distant lands? We are so blessed to be in a parish and a collaborative where people come from all parts of the world to call Randolph their home.

Our sharing in the Body and Blood of Jesus is not just for ourselves. Through the Eucharist we are called to be more like Christ. We are called to transformation and this transformation is both a gift and a challenge. Jesus gives fully of Himself in the Eucharist and calls us to do the same. We are to bring the presence of the risen Christ to others. We extend God to others by our self-giving. In receiving the Eucharist may we always give praise to God and ask God for divine assistance in whatever ways needed.

CATHOLIC APPEAL

I wish to take this opportunity to say "thank you" to all who have helped to make this year's Catholic Appeal such a wonderful success at St. Mary Parish. We have reached both of our goals. Thank you!

COLLABORATIVE NOTES

This past Friday, June 1st, the Collaborative of St. Bernadette and St. Mary Parishes has begun. We are blessed to have a wonderful lay staff at both parishes in addition to three priests assigned to the collaborative, a priest in residence and two deacons. We need to help, the patience, and the understanding of all as we seek to build this collaborative and to do the work of building God's kingdom of love, justice and mercy. We are excited and pleased to be here. This weekend we welcome Fr. Anthony Phong Bui to Randolph. Please pray for the success of our collaborative.

FORMED.ORG

As of this past week, we have 105 registered users of formed.org. That's incredible and surpasses our wildest expectations! Keep watching each week for the "pic of the week!"

If you haven't taken advantage, formed.org is a free on line website. It is like a Catholic Netflix and yet so much more! You can find movies, video studies with topics such as faith formation, Sacraments and bible studies to name a few. You will find an audio bible, audiobooks to listen to, inspiring talks, and e-books to download. Much of what is offered is also in Spanish and there is something for all ages. Our parishioners have FREE access to this website due to a grant.

How do you log on? Enter the full address www.stmaryrandolph.formed.org your address bar to go to formed.org. Do not use a search bar.

Once in, you will be asked to set up a secure password: at least 8 characters, includes letters and numbers, includes at least one special character for example a punctuation mark like a period, question mark, explanation mark etc. You are in!

If for any reason you have difficulty, there is a second way to register to formed.org. Go directly to the formed.org website. When you click register enter the special code NNZXYV. This is the code for the parish of Saint Mary, Randolph. Follow the directions to complete your username (email address) and password as explained above.

Don't forget...there is an app for that, too. Go to the app store to download formed.org on your cell phones and tablets. Sign in with your username and password. This is available for both IOS users and android users. JOIN OUR 105 USERS!

My favorite part of formed.org is on the desktop when you enter the website. It is a 3 to 4 minute video that speaks about and explains the upcoming Sunday readings. This breaking open of the Word leaves me thinking and when I hear the readings on Sunday it means so much more! Give it try.
