SUNDAY REFLECTION
 SUNDAY REFLECTION

What else is there to give when one has already given away their body and their life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all they have has been given to another? This total giving of self to loved ones cannot be trumped by flowery words or material gifts that are fleeting. This is the ultimate in love. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to his passion, at the Institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love he has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass on altars in every church, in every city, in every nation on earth. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship.

If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the One who is the embodiment of stewardship. Then, you must ask the question of yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: where will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread. By joining your body to his, he can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts, but by everyday acts, by everyday people practicing Everyday Stewardship.

Thank you to all who use the Poor Box or who donate directly to the Vincent DePaul fund for the needy of Randolph. During the first six months of 2018 we were able to assist 196 families, 375 individuals. While many come because they are on fixed income and the slightest increase in any bill strains the budget, others may have unique situations. Such was the young mother with an 11year old son and a 14year old girl. The daughter, after experiencing intense pain and loss of weight, was finally diagnosed with a large tumor that had gone undetected for months. They are now waiting for the results of the biopsy.

In addition to the food card the mother received, this family needs your prayers as the doctors determine if this tumor is cancerous and what procedure is needed to remove it. So whether your donation is large or small, the families you serve through the Vincent DePaul count on your prayers for them as well.

Prayer For the Safety of our Military

Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in you will be glad and forever will shout for joy.

Protect these military men and women as they discharge their duties.

Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm.

May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care.

"Together with a culture of work, there must be a culture of leisure as gratification. To put it another way: people who work must take the time to relax, to be with their families, to enjoy themselves, read, listen to music, play a sport."
