In order to enable us to become better disciples and better evangelizers the Archdiocese is offering three terrific workshops to all. Many members of our staff are registered to attend the first workshop in November. We strongly encourage to attend three workshops offered as formation for Disciples in Mission. It is recommended to attend them in the order listed:

*Forming Disciples
Forming Leaders and Forming Collaboratives*

All three workshops are open to the public. They are free to participants from within the Archdiocese of Boston! FR. PHIL

Happy Thanksgiving: May this coming Thanksgiving Day and the start of the Holiday Season bring great thanks and joy to all of us as we focus upon all the people and for all that we give thanks to God.

Craft Fair: Thank you to all who worked to make the Craft Fair of November 10th such a wonderful event. Thank you.

Reflections on Readings for 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time: We know that the Lord will not abandon us. Where do we find hope? The heavens tell of the glory of God. We are rapidly coming to the end of another liturgical year. Today's Gospel asks us to look at the time when we will meet the Lord at the end of our lives or at the end of the world. How happy or satisfied will we be at that moment with the quality of our love and service at the end of our life? We have a second chance now to prepare for that hour. Will we try to make the effort to love and serve as Jesus did?

As Christians our lives are rooted in the hopes of a better world and that better days are coming. Do we see God's love in the mystery of life, in the mystery of pain and tragedy? The second coming of Jesus must be seen as our greatest hope for a remedy to all of the ills and pain and all that is wrong with the world. We know that God will not be outdone in showing His love for us as He leads us home to eternal life with Him. Life on earth is a preparation for eternal life. How do we use who we are and what we have, to build up the common good of all? How do we see the glory of God in each other?

November—Praying for All Deceased: November is traditionally the month we remember our deceased loved ones in a special way. As we pray and remember our loved ones may we pray for those who have no one to pray for them and may we remember those who are alone this coming holiday season. Sometimes a little kindness and encouragement can make a big difference to someone who has lost a loved one.

BABY SHOWER

This weekend is our Baby Shower! Last weekend students from our middle school and high school Religious Education program spoke to you about a presentation they heard from Pregnancy Help. Pregnancy Help is sponsored through the Archdiocesan Pro-Life office. This program helps to affirm life by coming to the aid of women who find themselves pregnant and alone with no support. Nurses and caseworkers at Pregnancy Help provide counseling, support, and ultrasound services to clients of all ages, religions, and economic backgrounds. Our parish is helping to affirm life by having a "baby shower" today to provide needed baby gifts so crucial to infants.

We asked that you bring to Mass newborn outfits, long sleeve onsies, layette gowns, Dr. Brown baby bottles, diaper bags, crib sheets, nail clippers, baby thermometers and baby brushes and combs. For health reasons all items must be NEW.

Playpens have been set up in each foyer this weekend to collect these baby items. As mentioned, all items must be NEW. We thank all those who have already donated and if you forgot this weekend, we will have a box in the foyer next weekend. THANK YOU!
